

John A. Grieger

John A. Grieger, 92, Fargo, formerly Erie, died Friday, Dec. 16, 1988, in Fargo. The funeral was held Monday, Dec. 19, in St. John Lutheran Church, Arthur. Rev. Paul Guldseth and Rev. Arvild Jacobson officiated.

Organist was Beth Buchholz. Soloists were Floyd Longlet and Dalen Grieger. Pallbearers were Dalen Grieger, Elmer Grieger, Jeffrey Grieger, Joel Grieger, Kenneth Harmon and Terry Grieger. Interment is in Casselton Cemetery, Casselton. Military rites were provided by Casselton VFW and Rugg-Heile American Legion Post, Casselton.

John Grieger was born April 29, 1896, in Amenia, where he grew up and attended rural school. He served in the U.S. Army during World War I and returned to Amenia to help operate the family farm. He married Hattie Priewe Dec. 20, 1923, in Amenia. They farmed at Amenia until moving to Erie where they farmed. He also pumped water for the Great Northern Railroad and was a life member of the Erie Farmers Union Company. They moved to Fargo in 1986.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, Duane of Buffalo, Dallas of Amenia and Rodney of Fargo; a daughter, Mrs. James (Sylvia) Stewart of New Town; a brother, Walter of Fargo; and a sister, Bertha Kyлло of Fargo; 17 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.