

Mrs. Wayne Kyser rites held Feb. 2

Mrs. Wayne (Susie) Kyser, Sr., 90, of Erie died Friday, Jan. 30, 1976, in Valley City. The funeral service was held Monday afternoon, Feb. 2, in the Erie Methodist Church with Rev. James Towler officiating. Mrs. Floyd Thompson was organist. Music was by a women's quartet, Bonnie Chan, Karen Chan, Jane Conrad, Susan Bring.

Pallbearers were grandsons, Gerald Kyser, Donald Kyser, Robert Kyser, Kenneth Kyser, Craig Pfau, David Pfau and Douglas Pfau. Interment will be in Erie Cemetery.

Susie Ann Jenkins was born November 22, 1885 and lived in the Erie area all her life. She attended Mayville College and Dakota Business College and taught for three years before working as a secretary in Valley city.

She married Wayne Kyser September 14, 1916 at Erie. The couple owned and operated the Erie Hotel and meat market until 1925 when they moved to farm near Erie. In 1940 they moved into Erie. Mr. Kyser died in 1968.

Mrs. Kyser was a charter member of the Erie United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Church Women and she was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. She taught Sunday school for the past 70 years.

She is survived by two sons, Wayne Kyser, Jr. and Lynn Kyser, both of Erie, a daughter, Mrs. Lee (Magdalene) Pfau of Tower City; a twin sister, Mrs. Sarah Brewer of Erie; 18 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Mrs. Kyser and Mrs. Brewer were the oldest twins in Cass County.

Lindsey-Carlson Funeral Home, Page, was in charge of arrangements.