HISTORY OF TRAILL COUNTY.

Traill County, which is bounded north by Grand Forks County, by the Red River of the North, south by Cass County, and west by Steele County, comprises twenty-five congressional townships, extending from the Red River on the east to Range fifty-four west. It originally included ranges fifty-four and fifty-five west, which now form a part of Steele County. Its present area is 576,210 acres. It was named in honor of W. J. S. Traill, who came here as a representative of the Hudson Bay Company in 1870.

SOIL, GEOLOGICAL FORMATION AND SURFACE.

The soil of Traill County is a rich, deep loam with clay subsoil, and is really inexhaustible, as has been proven by the continuous cropping of the same fields for twenty years. The cretaceous formation which exists here has furnished the soil with a great many elements very conducive to vegetable growth.

The surface is principally level prairie, with sufficient slope to drain it thoroughly, and is heavily timbered along the banks of the rivers and streams, which are quite numerous.

The county has three rivers—the Red River on the eastern margin, the Goose River in the center, and the Elm River in the south. The Goose and Elm rivers have a number of small tributary streams, which, together with the main streams, furnish a splendid natural system of drainage for the whole county.

PRODUCTIONS, ETC.

In 1891 there was sown to wheat in Traill County 269,426 acres, with an average yield of 25 bushels per acre, giving a total yield of 6,735,650 bushels. This is slightly above the general average for years, but the best estimate that can be obtained is that the average wheat yield of the county for the last twenty years has been about twenty bushels per acre.

Although wheat is the principal crop sown, all other cereals and the root crops yield abundantly, showing that the soil is well adapted to general farming. Oats and barley give an average yield of forty-five bushels per acre. Considerable flax is sown each year, which produces a fair yield. Potatoes grow to a wonderful size, and of the best quality. All the tame grasses are cultivated successfully, and small fruits and all kinds of vegetables are grown in great abundance. The total crop acreage in 1891 was 329,683 acres.

A large number of the successful Traill County farmers are engaged in raising horses, cattle and sheep, which is a very profitable investment. Traill County is specially noted for its fine grade of road and draft horses.

EDUCATIONAL.

The schools of this county rank with the first in the State. There are eighty-three ungraded and four graded schools, with a seating capacity of 3,200, the number of children between the ages of 6 and 20 years is 2,738. The value of school-houses and sites, $68,200. For the maintenance of the schools $35,429 was spent during the year, and $49,360 received from all sources, for school purposes. In addition to the schools mentioned, this county possesses the great advantage of a

State Normal School, which is conveniently located in the City of Mayville. This training school for teachers has already produced a marked effect on the schools by instructing the teachers in new and thorough methods of teaching. County Superintendent Joseph Kennedy, who has had supervision over the schools of Traill County for the last four years, has, by his ability, energy and untiring devotion to duty, done noble work in improving the standing of all the schools of the county. The Norwegian Lutheran societies, in a few localities, maintain parochial schools for instructing their children in the Norwegian language, and giving them religious training.

The first school was taught at Caledonia, by James C. Patton, in 1872. The second was in a log building, built by the settlers as a school-house on the Hans Johnson claim, in the Town of Mayville, in the summer of 1873. The settlers in the western part of the county along the Goose River, recognizing the need of instruction for their children, held a meeting and arranged for a school building on the Thor Pederson claim. The citizens all turned out, cut and hauled the logs for the school-house, and in a few days the work was completed. This was in the summer of 1875. The first school in this building was taught by Miss Annie Steenerson, of Minnesota. The settlers defrayed the expenses by voluntary contributions.

NEWSPAPERS.

The first paper published in the county was the "Hillsboro Banner," the publication of which commenced in February, 1880. The second was the "Mayville Tribune," first issued in December, 1881.

The press of the county now consists of the "Banner," the "Traill County Times," the "Herald" and the "Ahold-Basumen," all of the city of Hillsboro; the "Mayville Tribune" and "Goose River Farmer," of Mayville; the "Traill County Times," of Caledonia; the "Portland Press," of Portland, and "Reynolds Enterprise," of Reynolds.

RAILROADS.

Four different lines of railroad traverse the county, but all are owned and operated by one company.

The main line of the Great Northern railroad crosses the eastern part of the county from south to north; the Mayville branch enters the south line of the county near its center and crosses the county in a northwesterly direction; the Portland branch crosses the western part of the county, intersecting with the Mayville branch at Portland Junction, four and one-half miles north of Portland; the Halstad branch crosses the southeastern portion, uniting with the main line four and one-half miles south of the city of Hillsboro. Other railroad routes have been surveyed across the county, but the lines of road have not yet been built.

EARLY SETTLEMENTS.

The first claim was taken up near the mouth of the Goose River, in the spring of 1870, by George E. Weston. W. J. S. Traill came about the same time.

In June, 1870, A. H. Morgan, now a prosperous merchant of Hillsboro, came as agent of the Hudson Bay Company to Frog Point, since named Belmont, and established a trading post for his company.

In July of that year Carl Mergenthal settled on the south bank of the Goose River, east of the city of Hillsboro. The next year he was joined by his brother-in-law, Henry Gronke.

In June, 1871, a colony of emigrants, who had traveled across the county with teams from Fargo, arrived on the banks of the Goose River, east of the present site of the city of Mayville. They at once commenced a settlement there. The colony consisted of Ingelbert and Iver Larson, Olof Svedberg, Andrew Hans and Gilbert Hanson, Peter Paulson, Hans Johnson, and O. P. Bakke. M. J. Gummer and Alvin Arnold arrived June 28th, 1871. Gummer settled in Mayville, where the Mayville Farm Buildings are now located.

Arnold went farther west, and settled within the present limits of the town of Roseville. About the same time M. O. and Christ. Kaldor, Rev. J. Ostlund, John Anderson and others, settled along the river west of Mergenthal's claim. In the summer of 1872, John Amb. Erick Evanson, O. T. Jahr, Sven N. and Andrew N. Heskin, located in the western part of the county on the banks of the Goose River. The first election was held in the American House at Caledonia, in November, 1872. The county was organized in 1875.

The first board of county commissioners appointed by Governor Howard was A. H. Morgan, Chairman; Jonas Ostlund and John Brown.

The first county officers were George E. Weston, Register of Deeds and County Clerk; Asa Sargeant, Judge of Probate and County Treasurer; C. M. Clark, Sheriff; J. C. Patton, Superintendent of Schools, and Thomas Watts, Coroner and County Surveyor.

The first County Commissioners' meeting was held at Caledonia, February 23, 1875.

The first church built was the Norwegian Lutheran Church, known as the Harstad Church, in Section 7, Town of Norway.

POPULATION.

In 1880 the population of Traill County was but 4,123.

In 1890 it had increased to 10,217, and now exceeds 13,000.

A large majority of the inhabitants are Scandinavians or their descendants. The Americans, Germans and Canadians have a fair representation. The other European nations have each a few representatives. The settlers are all intelligent, industrious and prosperous. Owing to its fine location, splendid climate, abundance of water, plentiful supply of timber and rich soil, Traill County ranks, according to its size and extent, as the richest county in North Dakota. This county is indeed the paradise of the "Bonanza Farmer." Many who came here only ten or twelve years ago with very limited capital, have in those few years amassed a comfortable fortune, raising that world-renowned No. 1 Hard wheat. All lands in Traill County have doubled in value in the last three years.

CITY HISTORIES.

CITY OF MAYVILLE.

The thriving city of Mayville is situated in the west central part of Traill County, on a slightly elevated plateau, which is partially surrounded on the south and west by the Goose River, whose heavily wooded banks add beauty and attractiveness to the city's surroundings. It is 62 miles northwest of Fargo and 35 miles southwest of Grand Forks, in the center of the fertile Goose River Valley, and has good railroad facilities, being connected with all points north and south by the G. N. R. M. J. Gummer, who still resides here, was the first white man to take up his residence on lands now occupied by the city of Mayville. He arrived here June 28, 1871. The city was platted by W. A. Kindred in 1880. In November, 1881, the N. P. R. R. Co. completed their road to Mayville. S. J. Johnson and S. E. Boyum built the first house in March, 1881. This building is the front part of the S. J. Johnson hardware store. The first child born in Mayville was Ida, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Boyum. The first couple married was S. J. Johnson and Anna Boyum. The Congregational Church, built in 1882, was the first church edifice erected. Miss Smith, of Buxton, taught the first school in the fall of 1881. The town was incorporated in the fall of 1883, with A. F. Anderson as President of the Council.

CHURCHES, NEWSPAPERS AND SCHOOLS.

Mayville has two good weekly newspapers, the "Mayville Tribune," established in 1881, and the "Goose River Farmer," first published here in 1901.

The city is noted for its fine church buildings, five in number, viz.: Congregational, Episcopal, Methodist, Synod Lutheran and Hauges. Ground has been purchased by church societies where two more churches are to be built sometime in the near future.

The city has a fine two-story frame school building, large enough to accommodate 150 students. Besides the city schools, Mayville has been specially favored by the location of one of the two North Dakota State Normal Schools at this place. The Normal School was located here by constitutional enactment in 1889, when the State Constitution of North Dakota was adopted.

HISTORY OF TRAIL COUNTY.

The State has richly endowed this school, and the citizens of Mayville take a just pride in anything that aids in advancing the interests of the Normal School, and will spare no pains to furnish all students with the best of accommodations.

The beautiful Normal School building now in process of erection, when completed, will be one of the finest school edifices in the Northwest. This State institution offers superior advantages to all who are preparing to teach in the public schools, and also to those who wish to acquire a thorough literary, scientific or professional education.

BUSINESS HOUSES, ETC.

Being conveniently located in the center of a rich agricultural region, Mayville has grown into a thriving, prosperous business city. It has two first-class banking institutions, and all kinds of mercantile houses to be found in any thriving western city, and as all of them are enjoying a lucrative trade, they are very prosperous.

In addition to the general business houses, Mayville has the extensive lumber yards and fine brick block of the Beidler & Robinson Lumber Co., which is occupied by principal offices of that prosperous firm; and the Goose River Mills, Gibbs & Edwards, Proprietors.

These celebrated mills grind annually about 250,000 bushels of No. 1 hard wheat, and manufacture a superior grade of flour, which finds a ready market in England, Scotland, Norway and the Eastern States. The city has an able corps of active professional gentlemen, who ably represent their chosen professions. The hotel accommodations are the very best.

Mayville, with its fine location, exhaustless water supply, splendid educational institutions, and superior social advantages, is destined to become a city of wealth and refinement. The population of the city in 1890 was 657, and is now over 900. Mayville has a number of religious, charitable and literary societies. The Gen. E. Farnsworth Post, No. 145 G. A. R., of Mayville, N. D., was organized July 3, 1889. A roster of the post is published for the benefit of those who may be anxious to ascertain knowledge of their former comrades in arms.

The city of Mayville has one of the finest opera halls in the State.

CITY OF HILLSBORO.

The city of Hillsboro has a splendid location on the south bank of the Goose River in Section 5, Township 145 North, Range 50 West. It was formerly known as Hill City. To the north of the city, along the banks of the river, are beautiful groves of timber which enhance the beauty of the landscape.

The city was platted in September, 1880, by Comstock & White. A. H. Morgan and James Rogers erected the first buildings in September, 1880. A. H. Morgan and John E. Paulson were the first merchants. The first child born was Harry Guy, son of Andrew and Julia Rustad. Mrs. Lizzie Peterson taught the first school in the autumn of 1881.

Early in the winter of 1881 Hillsboro was visited by a disastrous fire, which really proved a blessing to the city, as the district burnt over was rebuilt with one of the finest stone and brick blocks in the State.

The First National Bank building, on the corner of Caledonia Avenue and Main Street, which is built of beautiful brown stone, is one of the finest buildings in North Dakota.

The new Union block, the Plummer block, John E. Paulson's new block, and the stone and brick block which the Hillsboro Banking Company and Larson & Johnson are building, are all lasting memorials to the enterprise and energy of their founders.

NEWSPAPERS, SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES.

In the number of newspapers published, Hillsboro outranks all the other cities of Trail County. Here are published four weekly newspapers: the "Hillsboro Banner," the oldest paper in the city and county; the "Trail County Times of Hillsboro," the "Hillsboro Herald," and the "Aholde-Basumen."

The city has a graded school with four departments, which is unsurpassed in excellence, providing the most ample educational facilities.

There are six churches, the Norwegian Lutheran, Norwegian Methodist, American Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational and Catholic.

BUSINESS.

In the number and variety of business houses Hillsboro holds high rank among the cities of the State, having eight general stores, and five agricultural implement firms. All other lines of business are proportionately well represented.

The professions are represented by seven lawyers, three physicians, two veterinary surgeons and one dentist, all gentlemen of ability, who enjoy a lucrative practice and are an honor to their chosen professions.

The city has a fine opera hall, with a seating capacity for 1,900 people.

There are numerous societies, embracing Masonic, Odd Fellows, religious, benevolent, literary and musical associations.

The city is justly noted for its splendid location, fine business blocks, and elegant residences.

The population in 1890 was 715, and at present exceeds 1,000. The county officers are at present established at Hillsboro. The question of the location of the county seat of Trail County is still pending in the courts.

HISTORY OF PORTLAND.

The incorporated Town of Portland is situated in the central part of the Town of Roseville, about five miles from the Steele County line, on an elevated plain near the south bank of the Goose River. From the center of the town the surface of the plain gradually slopes down to the thickly-wooded banks of that winding stream. It is the largest town on the Portland branch of the G. N. Railway.

The four elevators of Portland handle, annually, about 800,000 bushels of grain. Portland has a good State bank, four large general merchandise stores, two drug stores, two farm machinery firms, three hotels, three blacksmith and wagon shops, two lumber yards, harness shop, furniture store, tailor shop, barber shop, a large livery, feed and sale stable, and is well represented in all other general lines of business.

In November, 1881, A. Arnold, S. O. Nordskog and O. T. Jahr platted the town site. The next spring the railroad was completed to Portland. Mr. A. Arnold, who came here in June, 1871, was the first settler. E. E. Neste started the first business house. The first school was taught by Miss Belle Hildebrand, in the summer of 1883.

In the short space of ten years Portland has increased so rapidly in wealth and population that it is now one of the most thriving and prosperous towns of the Goose River Valley. "The Portland Press," edited by Dr. C. G. Forbes, is liberally patronized by the Portland merchants, and has a large circulation.

The town has a good two-story frame school building. The graded school of two departments is always well attended, and ably managed by competent teachers. The Bruflat Academy and Business College is a literary institution of which Portland may justly feel proud.

The college building, which is three stories above the basement, is beautiful in appearance and design, and comfortable and commodious.

It is situated on the highest point of ground in the western part of the town, opposite the beautiful Norwegian Synod church.

It was built by a stock company composed of rich farmers of the adjoining country and citizens of Portland. The terms for tuition and board are very reasonable; the best of instructors are always employed, and the course of study in all branches is thorough and complete.

Portland has three churches—two Norwegian-Lutheran and one Methodist. A Congregational Church Society has been organized, and a church for that denomination will be built next year. Portland has a number of literary, musical, benevolent and church societies.

BOHNSACK.

This town, which is twelve miles long east and west, by six miles north and south, is in the southern part of the county. The townships embraced in this tract are, Township 144 N., Ranges 51 and 52 W. The surface is level prairie, slightly undulating in the extreme western portion. The town was named in honor of John Bohnsack, who came here from Plymouth, Wis., in 1878. His son William entered the first claim in June, 1878. Some of the largest farms in the county are located here. Since the town was first settled, every season has yielded abundant harvests.

Senator R. J. Johnson, Charles and Philip Bohnsack, G. A. Willison, D. S. Calley, Ed. McGregor, J. T. Workman, D. I. Eyles, Thos. Cooper and David Young were among the first settlers. Bohnsack has no villages. There is a railroad station, Greenfield, in Section 24, Township 144 N., Range 52 W. Weible postoffice is located here. The Elm River flows through the northeastern part of the town. The German-Lutherans have built a fine church in eastern Bohnsack. The town has four school-houses, where good schools are maintained eight months in the year. The civil and school town officers are: D. McSparron, Chairman; Chas. Bohnsack and Ed. McGregor, Supervisors; Philip Bohnsack, clerk; A. G. Cormack, Assessor; R. J. Johnson, Treasurer; Thomas Cooper, G. A. Willison and G. T. Smith, School Directors; Chas. Bohnsack, School Clerk; W. J. McSparron, School Treasurer.

GALESBURG.

Wm. M. Erb, J. S. Kemp, Wm. P. Houghton, John Erickson, Thos. Ashford and P. S. Houghton settled in Township 144 N., Range 53 W., in 1883. It was organized as a civil town May 5th, 1885, and received its name from J. H. Gale, of Hunter, Cass County, who owned the town site of Galesburg, which was platted in 1883, when the railroad was built through the town. This village consists of a general store, blacksmith shop and two elevators.

The soil of the town is good, and most of the surface is rolling prairie. Considerable of the land is still uncultivated. The town maintains three schools. A majority of the inhabitants are Scandinavians; the others are Americans and Canadians. Other old settlers not mentioned at first, are H. P. Kullo, who came here in 1881, and Ole P. Satrom, John I. Jondal, and Ole O. Moen, who settled here a little later. The town officers are: Chairman, Ole P. Satrom; Supervisors, John Ostadlokken and M. Erickson; Clerk, Wm. M. Erb; Assessor, H. B. Kullo; Treasurer, Alex. Stewart; School Directors, John I. Jondal, S. O. Kullo and Chas. E. Ruut; School Clerk, Wm. M. Erb; School Treasurer, Ole P. Satrom.

NORMAN.

Norman Township (145 N., R. 53 W.) was named after its first settler, Carl Norman, who settled here in the summer of 1879. Among those who settled in the town in 1880 were, A. C. and O. G. Koppang, O. Gronden, John O. Rindahl, G. Danielson and Ole Erickson. The first town meeting was held August 18, 1883. I. A. Rygg was elected Chairman, John O. Rindahl and A. Cooper, Supervisors; Ed. Cooper, Clerk, and A. A. Swoven, Treasurer. The G. N. R. R. line to Portland was built through the town in 1882. The same year the Village of Clifford was started.

The surface is level and the soil rich, dark loam. There are four schools in Norman and one church. Many of the inhabitants are Norwegians.

The town officers are: John O. Rindahl, Chairman; O. A. Skauge and Carl Larson, Supervisors; C. H. Withers, Assessor; I. A. Rygg, Clerk; A. T. Kraabel, Treasurer; O. A. Skauge, J. O. Rindahl, C. H. Withers, School Directors; O. L. Bowen, School Clerk, and I. A. Rygg, School Treasurer.

VILLAGE OF CLIFFORD.

The Village of Clifford is situated in Sections 27 and 28, Town of Norman, on the Portland branch of the G. N. R. R. It was platted in 1882. This village affords a good market to all the adjoining country. A large quantity of wheat is marketed here annually. The business houses are well patronized.

ROSEVILLE.

This town is twelve miles long, and includes two congressional townships; Townships 147 and 146 N., Range 53 W.

A. Arnold made the first settlement in the summer of 1871. E. A. Tolen came in September. May 3d, 1872, John Amb, the present county surveyor, came on foot from Fargo, with an ax on his shoulder, and a few biscuits tied in a parcel attached to the ax-handle, and took up his claim west of Mr. Arnold's. During that summer came Andrew and Sven Heskun, Erick Evanson and O. T. Jahr. Many more came in 1874, '75 and '76. Christ Mouson, at the first town meeting, proposed the name Roseville, which was adopted as the name of the town. Roseville has a generally level surface and rich soil, yielding abundant crops. The town is well drained by the Goose River and its tributaries.

Portland is situated in the east central part of the town, and the G. N. R. runs through the entire length.

There are seven school-houses in Roseville, including the graded school in the town of Portland. Four miles south of Portland is Roseville station.

The Cargill Bros. have a large elevator here, and the Norwegian Lutherans have built a fine church.

The majority of the inhabitants are Norwegians. Roseville is one of the most thickly settled and wealthiest towns in the county.

The town officers are: Chairman, T. Peterson; Supervisors, H. Larson and H. H. Skadiand; Clerk, O. S. Wallen; Assessor, J. R. Monson; Treasurer, S. C. Swenson; School Directors, H. E. Luckin, N. G. Nyhus and Martin Larson; School Clerk, E. I. Evanson.

GARFIELD.

Township 148 N., Range 53 W., named Garfield, is in the extreme northwestern part of Traill County. It consists of level prairie with a very fertile soil, is thickly populated by an energetic and industrious class of settlers, most of whom are Norwegians. The settlers are very prosperous, and have fine homes. This town has never had a failure of crops.

There are five school-houses, including the graded school in the Village of Hatton. The Norwegian Lutherans have a fine church edifice in Section 6. The town officers are: M. F. Hegge, Chairman; Supervisors, M. O. Sollah and O. F. Ness; Clerk, T. E. Nelson; Assessor, John L. Moe; Treasurer, A. O. Myrand; School Officers: M. F. Hegge, O. N. Orland and J. A. Moe, School Directors; C. A. Digness, School Treasurer, and H. M. Haakenson, School Clerk.

VILLAGE OF HATTON.

Hatton is one of the most thriving villages in Traill County, owing to the splendid territory that is tributary to it.

L. O. Fisk built the first house in 1880. In 1885 the village was platted by the G. N. R. R. Co., Hegge & Nelson, and L. O. Fisk. The railroad was completed in the fall of that year. The first child born in Hatton was Clara, daughter of M. F. and Carrie Hegge. The St. John's Norwegian Lutheran Church congregation have erected a beautiful church. There is a graded school with two departments. Over 700,000 bushels of wheat passes through the Hatton elevators annually.

Situated 70 miles from Fargo and thirty-five miles from Grand Forks, in the most fertile portion of the Red River Valley, Hatton's merchants are very prosperous, and the village is increasing rapidly in wealth and population. Hegge & Nelson, who built the first store, are still in business. We predict for Hatton a prosperous future.

MORGAN.

Directly east of Garfield, along the Grand Forks County line, is the town of Morgan (Township 148 N., Range 52 W.). This township is thickly settled by Norwegians, Germans, French and Americans. The surface and soil are the same as those of the surrounding towns. Although one of the last towns in the county to be settled, there is scarcely a quarter section in the town but what is cultivated. There is one fine church in Morgan, located in Section 18, and three good school buildings.

The farmers find a ready market for their grain at Hatton, Buxton and Mayville. Morgan has for officers: Chairman, O. G. Nelson; Supervisors, F. Belanger and

O. O. Moen; Clerk, T. C. Kopseng; Assessor, W. H. M. Lyche; Treasurer, H. G. Braaten; School Directors, F. Belanger, W. Keller and G. A. Moen; School Clerk, H. Niemas; and School Treasurer, O. G. Nelson.

MAYVILLE.

The town of Mayville is twelve miles long north and south, by six miles wide east and west, and includes Townships 146 and 147 N., Range 52 W. It is bounded north by Morgan, east by Logan and Norway, south by Blanchard, and west by Roseville. In surface, soil and general cultivation, it is one of the best towns in the county. In the west central part is the thriving city of Mayville. Early in the summer of 1871, Ingobert and Iver Larson, Peter Paulson, Hans Hanson and Gilbert Hanson came across the country from Fargo, arriving on the Goose River, east of the present city of Mayville, June 24, 1871. Attracted by the fine appearance of the country and the richness of the soil they determined to locate here.

On the 28th of June came Oluf Swedberg, Hans Johnson and Morris J. Gummer. Swedberg and Johnson settled on claims near those who had already arrived, but Gummer pushed on further west and squatted on the N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 31, Township 147, N., range 52 W., and built a shanty on the grounds now occupied by the Mayville farm buildings.

October 14, O. P. Bakke, Ole Erickson and Hans C. Hanson joined the Mayville colony.

From this time on the settlement grew rapidly. There are seven schools in the town of Mayville, exclusive of the Mayville city schools.

A large majority of the inhabitants are Norwegians or their descendants.

The town officers are: O. C. Haun, Chairman; Iver Larson and Gilbert Westland, Supervisors; F. G. Shelton, Clerk; Albert Olson, Assessor; A. A. Skarperud, Treasurer; Lars P. Aarhus, M. Anderson and Andrew Hanson, are School Directors; O. P. Bakke, School Clerk, and F. G. Shelton, School Treasurer.

BLANCHARD.

The civil town of Blanchard includes Townships 145 N., Ranges 51 and 52 W., and is twelve miles long east and west. The whole surface is a beautiful level prairie, with a deep rich loam soil. Blanchard, like Bohnsack, is specially noted for its large "bonanza farms." Among the first settlers in the town were Tom Erickson, J. D. Burke, R. W. Falconer, Newton Olson, Douglas Robertson, Jens Grandahl and Chas. Ellingson. It was organized as a civil town in 1884. There are six school-houses in Blanchard. The settlers are Norwegians, Canadians and native Americans.

The town officers are H. D. Reed, Chairman; John Nelson and Thomas Erickson, Supervisors; Charles Ellingson, Clerk; R. W. Falconer, Assessor and School Clerk; Douglas Robertson, Treasurer; A. G. Olson, Chas. Spangring and Thomas Grimstidt, School Directors; Frank Briggs, School Clerk.

VILLAGE OF BLANCHARD.

The village of Blanchard, the first station south of the city of Mayville, on the Mayville branch of the G. N. R. R., was platted in 1880, and being in the center of a rich agricultural district much business is transacted here, particularly in grain shipping. The village is situated in the eastern part of Section 25, Township 145 N., Range 52 W. There are four elevators, two blacksmith shops, two general stores, a lumber yard and a good hotel.

HILLSBORO.

Township 145 N., Range 50 W., is situated in the east central part of the county, and enjoys the distinction of being one of the best townships in Traill County. In Section five is situated the thriving and prosperous city of Hillsboro. Settlements were made here as early as 1876. Among those who came first were O. W. Anderson, A. Poterud, John De Groat, John Balles, B. S. Wentworth, George Pease and Christ Hanson. The civil town was organized in 1886, with Thos. Wilson as first Chairman; E. J. Johnson and A. Schmidt, Supervisors; Will Conant, Clerk; A. F. Dyer, Assessor, and F. D. Winter, Treasurer.

Including the graded school in the city of Hillsboro there are three school-houses in the town, all under the management of one township board of school directors. The North Branch of the Elm River flows through the southern part of the town.

The township officers are C. S. De Groat, Chairman; A. F. Dyer and James Rogers, Supervisors; B. S. Wentworth, Clerk; E. W. L. Carkin, Treasurer; Knut Svalestuen, Assessor; J. F. Selby, P. L. Bervig and E. W. L. Carkin, School Director; Jorgen Howard, School Clerk and Hans Johnson, School Treasurer.

ELDORADO.

Eldorado, which is Township 146 N., Range 50 W., is in the central part of Traill County, directly north of Hillsboro. It was one of the first towns settled. Carl Mergenthal came from Yankton in 1870, and settled on the Goose River, northeast of the present city of Hillsboro. The next year he was joined by Henry Gronke, John and Carl Honsmann and Fred. Kuhlman took up claims along the Goose River in 1874. In 1878 there was a large immigration into this town.

In that year came H. H. Strom, Ole N., Peter N. and Andrew N. Yedstie, E. Halvorsen, A. M. Anderson, John Olson, O. L. Hanson, O. O. Lee and J. A. Sorum.

When the first town meeting was held, Jan. 19, 1882, Eldorado and Ervin were included under one organization. They were organized as separate towns March 20, 1883.

The Goose River crosses through the southern part of the town. Its banks are here lined by a heavy growth of timber, which in some parts, where the river is very crooked, extends to a considerable distance on both sides of the stream. Eldorado is one of the best and richest towns in the county. There is one church, German Lutheran, situated on the south bank of the river in Section 34. There are five schools. The School directors are: John J. Berg, J. A. Sorum and A. Steenson; Clerk, H. H. Strom; Treasurer, Carl Mergenthal. The town officers are: Chairman, H. H. Strom; Supervisors, H. Bairman and J. A. Sorum; Clerk and Assessor, A. Steenson; Treasurer, Carl Mergenthal. The inhabitants are Germans and Norwegians, with a few native-born Americans.

NORWAY.

John Anderson was the first settler in Norway township. He settled near the Goose River, about four miles west of the City of Hillsboro, in 1871. M. O. Christ, and S. O. Kaldor, Lars E. Moen, Andrew Peterson, Ole Engbertson and many others, came here about the same time. When first organized, in 1882, it included the town of Logan. To honor their motherland in Europe, the settlers, who were all natives of the Scandinavian Peninsula, named the town Norway. The Goose River flows through the town, giving it good drainage and the settlers an abundance of timber. The settlers have secured a number of flowing wells, which are very useful. The well on the farm of Ole Engbertson, in Section 35, is the largest and finest in the Goose River Valley. There are four public schools, one private school and two Norwegian Lutheran churches. The one known as the Harstad church was the first building in the county erected for religious worship.

J. H. Johnson, L. L. Thorstad and A. P. Waslein, are the Town Board of School Directors; T. T. Jahr, Town and School Clerk; G. A. Harstad, School Treasurer; J. H. Johnson, Chairman; P. S. Waslein and Ole Hegge, Supervisors; G. A. Harstad, Clerk; M. O. Kaldor, Treasurer, and T. T. Jahr, Assessor.

LOGAN.

Township 147 N., Range 51 W., named in honor of the great volunteer general of the Rebellion, formed a part of the town of Norway until 1889, when it was organized as a separate town. The first settlements were made here in 1875 by Christ, Nelson, Lars Skattegaard, N. H. Wold, Mons Johnson, B. L. Skrivesth, A. F. Homstad and C. H. Hobart. The settlers are Americans and Norwegians.

The surface is level and the soil rich and productive. The farmers find a convenient market for their grain at Cummings, Buxton and Mayville.

Four public schools have been established in Logan. The school directors are C. H. Hobart, B. L. Skrivesth and Mons Johnson; N. H. Wold, School and Town Clerk; H. E. Stout, School and Town Treasurer. The other town officers are W. J. Burnett, Chairman; Frank Crane and Elling Stoa, Supervisors, and O. K. Lee, Assessor.

ERVIN.

The town of Ervin (Township 147 North, Range 50 West) is one of the central towns of Traill County, and is bounded north by Buxton, east by Caledonia, south by Eldorado and west by Logan. This is one of the best towns in the county, both in location and richness of soil. E. C. Graham, F. M. Sullivan, Ole, David and Orlando Comfort, Mat Rachac, J. Henderson, B. M. Johnson, Ole J., Elias and George Lilleberg, D. D. Williams, Martin and Erick Johnson and M. O. Vang were the first settlers. The name Ervin was given to the town in honor of John Henderson's son, Ervin.

In this town are four public schools and one church. The Norwegian element predominates in the population. There are a number of Americans who came here from the Eastern States. The school officers are Mat Raehae, M. O. Vang and Ole J. Lilleberg, Directors; B. M. Johnson, School Clerk; George Lilleberg, School Treasurer. The town officers are H. C. Smette, Chairman; E. M. Upson and A. D. Williams, Supervisors; S. P. Morton, Clerk; Olaf Amund, Assessor; F. M. Sullings, Treasurer.

VILLAGE OF CUMMINGS.

The village of Cummings, situated on the main line of the G. N. Railroad, about seven miles north of the city of Hillsboro, in the south part of Sec. 30, town of Ervin, is a thriving little town. In the last year many new enterprises have been added to the town. Among those may be mentioned the Upson Farming Co.'s large and commodious store building, the new hardware store, butcher shop, and the new bank building.

The village was first platted by Mr. Comfort. D. D. Williams afterward laid out what is known as "Williams' Addition," east of the railroad.

Cummings has two general stores, three elevators, two hardware stores, a butcher shop, lumber yard, and a State bank.

BUXTON.

The town of Buxton, twelve miles long, by six wide, is situated in the north central part of Traill County. It is bounded north by Grand Forks County, east by Belmont, south by Ervin and Logan, and west by Morgan. It includes Townships 148 N., Ranges 50 and 51 W.

The first settlement in the eastern township was made in 1878 by G. B. Jacobson; I. E. Ingvalson and J. E. Fevold, Knud J. G. J. and Ole J. Nonland, H. P. Omnestad, Ole T. Tveden, K. O. Hovet, S. M. Plummer and John I. Lerom, settled here the same year. Hon. Budd Reeve, Wm. Ramsden, G. L. O. Neale, L. O. Myrhe, S. H. Hagele, and T. H. Woldy came in 1880. O. B. Olson and O. S. Hanson arrived in 1881. G. J. Longfellow and Mat Schumacher were the first settlers in Township 148 N., Range 51 West, in 1879. The town was organized in 1881. The principal part of the town being north of the fifty-mile land grant to the N. P. R. R. Co., was subject to entry for homesteads and tree claims, and was quickly occupied by industrious Norwegians, Germans and Americans. The soil, especially in the eastern part, is very fertile. The Norwegian Lutherans have erected two churches in East Buxton. Buxton has eight good school-houses, and the citizens are very liberal in maintaining good schools.

The School Directors are John I. Lerom, Dr. J. Grassick and C. W. Goodrich; Clerk, G. J. Longfellow; Treasurer, G. J. Nonland. The town officers are: Chairman, L. O. Myrhe; Supervisors, K. K. Knudson and S. H. Hagele; Clerk, M. O. Halverson; Treasurer, Osman Thompson, and Assessor, Halvor Nash.

VILLAGE OF BUXTON.

Buxton Village, situated in the southern part of Sec. 23, Tp. 148 N., Range 51 W., was platted by Hon. Budd Reeve in 1880. That year the railroad was built through the town, and the first building erected. Since then the village has grown rapidly in wealth and population. Hon. Budd Reeve, the founder of the town, is ever foremost in encouraging and aiding any project for the improvement of the village.

This beautiful village has three fine church edifices, one Congregational and two Norwegian Lutheran, a school building, where a graded school of two departments is maintained nine months of each year, a State bank, a good hotel, six general stores, three elevators, two hardware stores, two meat markets, three blacksmith shops, one lumber yard, one drug store, two agricultural implement firms, one physician, one livery barn, one harness shop, one barber shop, a fine town hall, an Odd Fellows lodge, and free reading-rooms.

REYNOLDS.

The village of Reynolds, which is situated on the county line between Traill and Grand Forks Counties, is a thriving town on the G. N. R. R. Co.'s main line, between Grand Forks and Fargo.

The village was platted in 1880, and first settled in the spring and summer of 1881, when the line of railroad was completed.

Since its founding, Reynolds has grown rapidly in wealth and population, especially in the last few years. The business men of Reynolds are enterprising and energetic, and are always liberal in subscribing to any enterprise that will aid in building up their town. Reynolds is well equipped with all kinds of mercantile firms and has full quota of professional gentlemen. The steam flouring mill in the northern part of the village is one of the best in the State. A fine new hotel building is being erected this season, and also many beautiful private residences.

KELSO.

The town of Kelso (Tp. 144 N., Range 50 W.) is situated on the south line of the county and is bounded north by Hillsboro, east by Elm River, south by Cass County, and west by Hillsboro. In point of surface, soil and general natural advantages, this is one of the best towns in Traill County.

The main line of the Great Northern Railroad crosses the town from north to south. The northern part of the town is watered by the North Branch and the southern half is drained by the South Branch of the Elm River. Some timber grows along both of these streams.

The first settlers in Kelso were: L. S. Safford, the Conant brothers, A. L. Wentworth, James and J. H. Johnson and David Falconer.

Like most of the other towns of Traill County, it was organized in 1880. The first town officers were: G. A. Rosencranz, Chairman; Joseph Sim and John Herman, Supervisors; A. L. Wentworth, Treasurer; and B. S. Wentworth, Clerk. The present town officers are Joseph Sim, Chairman; John Herman and Ed. Johnson, Supervisors; A. L. Wentworth, Treasurer; John Falconer, Assessor; D. McFarlane, Clerk. The town school officers are: L. C. Stanford, J. H. Johnson and Thos. McCoy, Directors; G. A. Rosencranz, School Clerk; and Alex. Smart, Treasurer. There are three schools in the town. The majority of the settlers are Americans and Canadians.

VILLAGE OF KELSO.

This village is situated in Section 5 on the south bank of the Elm River, and is a place of considerable commercial importance. A large quantity of wheat is shipped annually from this village. Lindley's Addition to Grandin is situated in Section 34 of Kelso. The rest of this thriving and prosperous village is just across the line in Cass County. Grandin is one of the best business points in North Dakota.

BELMONT.

The town of Belmont, the northeastern town of the county, includes all of Township 148 N., Range 49 W., and the north two tiers of sections of Township 147 N., Range 49 W.

This town, which consists of rich prairie, is thoroughly drained by the Red River of the North, which flows along its eastern border. Along the banks of this river is an abundance of fine timber. In 1870, A. H. Morgan, now of Hillsboro, came to Belmont, then known as Frog Point, as agent of the Hudson Bay Company, and established a trading post. In 1871, Robert Ray came as employe of the same company.

The fertile soil of the Red River Valley attracted others who came here and made settlements in 1871 and 1872. Among those may be mentioned, Ole Thompson, Ole O. Renslan, T. Thompson, Carl Larson and others. The town was organized in 1880, with Elling Ellingson, Chairman; A. T. Sannes and Martin Thompson, Supervisors; Joseph Thompson, Clerk; W. F. Ritchie, Treasurer.

The present town officers are: Chairman, L. K. Raak; Supervisors, A. T. Sannes and Bernt Johnson; Clerk, W. L. Asher; Assessor, G. K. Vikan; Treasurer, S. K. Knutson.

Belmont has built five good school-houses, and provides liberally for the maintenance of her schools. The school officers are: L. K. Raak, A. T. Sannes and M. C. Wong, Directors; G. K. Vikan, Clerk; S. K. Knutson, Treasurer.

VILLAGE OF BELMONT.

This village is pleasantly situated in the eastern half of Section 22, of Township 148 N., Range 49 W., about eighty rods from the Red River. Although having a splendid location, the village has grown but slowly owing to its lack of railroad communication. Considerable wheat is shipped from this point by boats to Grand Forks and Fargo.

CALEDONIA.

The town of Caledonia, which extends sixteen miles north and south on the west bank of the Red River, is composed of Townships 145 and 146 N., Range 49 W., and the south four tiers of sections of Township 147 N., Range 49 W. It also includes two small fractions of Township 145 N., Range 48 W., which are west of the Red River. Besides the Red River, which flows along the entire eastern line, the Goose River crosses through the central part in a northerly direction, emptying into the Red one mile east of the village of Caledonia. These rivers give splendid drainage to the town, and the heavy timber lining their banks furnish an abundance of fuel and delightfully sheltered nooks, where the settlers have erected some of the finest farm homes in the valley. Geo. E. Weston took up the first claim in 1870. W. J. S. Traill came about the same time. C. M. Clark, As-

Sargeant, Lewis Olson, Patrick Kelly and M. O. and E. Flaherty settled here in the spring of 1871. The richness of the soil, splendid water, and fine situation on the Goose and Red Rivers made this a very attractive country for settlers, and very soon all the government land was settled on by sturdy, intelligent emigrants from Norway, Canada, and the Eastern States. In 1880, when the town was organized, M. O. Flaherty was elected Chairman, and C. L. Gordon and John J. Kulstad, Supervisors.

The present town officers are C. H. Layman, Chairman; Arthur Edmunds and A. L. Bingham, Supervisors; J. P. Clark, Treasurer; S. B. Ronglie, Assessor; W. C. Paton, Clerk.

Caledonia maintains eight good schools, and her intelligent citizens are always very liberal in voting school appropriations. The school officers are P. Kelly, A. Edmunds and A. L. Bingham, Directors; W. P. Cleveland, Clerk; J. W. G. Anderson, Treasurer.

VILLAGE OF CALEDONIA.

The village of Caledonia, which is situated on both banks of the Goose River, about one mile from the Red River, occupies all of the southeast quarter of Section 15, Township 146 N., Range 49 W. It is built on high ground along the banks of the river; in the midst of beautiful groves of handsome timber, and all who visit this town pronounce its location one of the finest in the State.

The first buildings in the village were erected in the spring of 1871, by C. M. Clark and Asa Sargeant. The first school was taught by J. C. Patton, in the summer of 1872. When Traill County was organized, Caledonia was made the county seat, and continued as such until 1890, when the county officers moved the records to the city of Hillsboro. Caledonia still claims to be the legal county seat, as the question has been carried into the courts and is still undecided.

With its fine location and splendid natural surroundings, Caledonia has been unfortunate in the matter of securing a railroad. This drawback has in part retarded the growth of the village; but the citizens are hopeful of having this remedied ere long.

The village has a good weekly newspaper, the "Traill County Times," a prosperous State bank, good hotel accommodations, a number of substantial business houses, a good school building, fine church edifices and a comfortable and commodious court house. There is also a large and well-kept livery, feed and sale stable. Considerable of the wheat raised in the vicinity of Caledonia, is forwarded by boats to main points on the Red River. The Caledonia Roller Mills, George Wiest proprietor, is a manufacturing institution that Caledonia is justly proud of, and ranks as one of the best mills in the State.

ELM RIVER.

Township 144 N., Range 49 W., named Elm River, is situated in the southeast corner of Traill County, extending from Caledonia on the north to Cass County on the south. It is bounded east by the Red River, and on the west by Kelso.

Being traversed by the Elm River and its branches, and fronting on the Red River, the drainage of the town is perfect. The surface is level, and the soil as rich as can be found anywhere in the State or nation. Along the Elm and Red Rivers there is a heavy growth of timber, which affords protection from the winter storms, and gives the settlers an abundance of cheap fuel. The settlers here have the advantage of Red River transportation in disposing of their agricultural products.

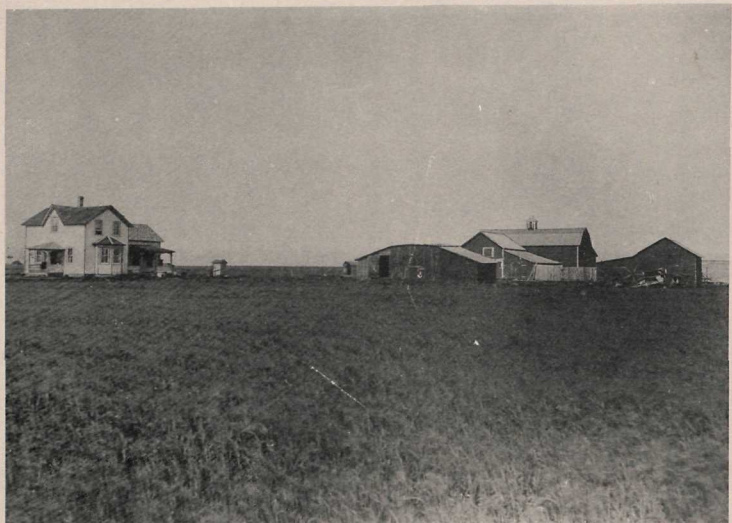

The first settlement in the town was made by G. H. F. Johnson, in July, 1874. Other early settlers were J. L. Anderson, James Grady, Robert, James and Stewart McCradie, Christ. Olson, J. M. Herberg and John Weller. The first town officers elected, after the organization of the town in 1880, were: Chairman, G. H. F. Johnson; Supervisors, J. L. Anderson and B. B. Rover; Clerk, A. G. Lewis, and Treasurer, R. McCradie.

There are three school-houses in Elm River Township. The population consist of Americans, Canadians and Norwegians, who are intelligent, industrious and very prosperous.

The town officers are G. H. F. Johnson, Chairman; Alex. Smart and Ole L. Asland, Supervisors; Thos. Knox, Assessor; F. C. Harrington, Clerk. G. H. F. Johnson, John Nicol and William Anderson are the Board of School Directors. F. C. Harrington, School Clerk, and Thos. Knox, School Treasurer.

VILLAGE OF QUINCY.

The village of Quincy, which is situated south of the Elm, and near the Red River, is located in the central part of Section 26, town of Elm River. The first buildings were erected in 1876. This village, though small, is delightfully situated on one of the finest sites along the picturesque Red River.
