

Old Wheelersburg Cemetery

Porter Township,

Scioto County, OH

Extracted from the now defunct Scioto.org the former Scioto County GenWeb Site

Old Wheelersburg Cemetery is located on the hill between old U.S. Route 52 and Shela Blvd., Porter Township, Scioto Co., Ohio. The cemetery covers 23 acres in the NW quarter of Section 15-2-20. The township pioneers and others previously buried on the banks of the Little Scioto River were moved here in 1917. On April 23, 1968, a tornado overturned and destroyed many of the tombstones in Wheelersburg Cemetery. Many of the stones remain broken or toppled, although care of the cemetery has generally been good. Caryn R. and Duane Shomaker previously recorded inscriptions in this cemetery up to 1980. Feeling the need for a complete revision and update, Virgil and Marguerite Ramsey recorded the entire cemetery, starting in September 1987 and ending in November.

NEW STONE ADDITIONS

KIECKBACH, Mary C, Nurse, U.S. Vols., Dec. 23 1831 - Aug.24 1919

[Civil War veteran headstone]

KIECKBAH, Lucy Plummer, Grandmother, Mar. 11 1900, May 11 1923

[Lucy is buried beside her first husband, Frank OHLINGER. Please note that the surname is spelled differently (not a mistake), Mary was Lucy's mother-in-law, but Mary's son, Maurice II, changed the spelling. Mary's original stone was carried away by the 1968 tornado, but it is unknown if Lucy had a stone before this one.
