Moulton Farm Cemetery is located three miles north of Lucasville, Valley Township, on U.S. Route 23. The cemetery is east of the railroad in a grove of pine trees and has been neglected for years. Fieldstones indicate over 30 burials. Most of the stones had to be dug up, as they were covered by over a foot of sod and soil. No doubt, there are more stones buried there that I missed, though I spent well over an hour probing with a steel rod.
